Robert Buckner, whose prize-winning "Bright Victory" is now at the Hill Theater, has recently donated a motion picture projector to the Del Monte School. He has also given some educational films to the school, and he plans to operate the projector himself. Incidentally, of all the awards "Bright Victory" won, Buckner is proudest of the U.S. foreign correspondents' vote as the best U.S. film of 1951.

Recent word from the East tells of the marriage of Henry Meade Williams and Margaret Bettinger at Schenectady, N.Y. They are honeymooning at Pleasant Bay, a little north of Bar Harbor, Maine.

- - - - - - - - - - -

These ad photographers sometimes come up with some pretty neat tricks. One of the best we've seen in some time appeared in Life and Collier's a couple of weeks ago. Cookie Crouch and Al Railton are standing by a tree watching themselves drive off in a new Studebaker.

- - - - - - - - - -

Another local model, Jackie Wakefield, will soon grace Grand Central Station, as one of a group in a huge kodachrome transparency. It will be one of a series of Kodak ads. The transparencies are biggest ever made - something like 20 by 30 feet.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - -

One local man with offices downtown evidentli idecided things are just too confusing these days. He bought himself a crystal ball. He says with it he will at least have some sort of basis - for answering questions about the weather, etc.

Speaking of Los Laureles Lodge, the S.F. Chronicle staff seems to have taken over. Lynn Gamble, advertising executive, was caught coming out of the wrong shower by two girls - also of the Chronicle staff. Stanton Delaplane was there, and all these doings might make a good postcard from the Valley.

- - - - - - - - - -

Councilman Francis Whitaker lost patience crossing town the other day. When he was stopped by a double parker, it was the last straw. Out he got and promptly gave the man a citation.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Last weekend the swimmers were out in force at the Los Laureles Lodge - a goodly number enjoying the pool in what is usually described as street dress. Lawrence Tibbetts, Jr. and his wife Norma were among the several who went in fully clothed. George Smith, busy taking pictures of the gala evening, was forced to join them, camera and all. It wasn't 'til next morning that a guest dived to retrieve his glasses.

- - - - - - - - - -

One of the nastiest tricks we have heard of in some time occurred recently. Some bright person dumped about a dozen live crabs loose on Ocean avenue, their claws tied. Mrs. G. F. Dalton of Carmel Valley spied the luckless creatures, rescued them from under cars, and saw to it they were turned loose on the beach. Derek Rayne supplied the scissors to cut the bindings on their claws.

- - - - - - - - - - -

We were procuring some horsemeat for a dog we know in a local pet shop the other day, when a lady with a considerable air of importance and affluence negotiated the purchase of four pounds of horsemeat for her dog. Owner of the store asked her what kind of a dog it was, lady said it was "like" a Samoyed. Pressed, she said "half Samoyed-half poodle," pronouncing it all as if it were a new, planned, and highly exclusive breed.

LA PLAYA BAR DUE TO BE COMPLETED AUGUST 15

The new cocktail lounge going into the La Playa Hotel is due to be completed and open by August 15, according to Manager Ashton Stanley. The lounge will be in what was the old dining room.

The liquor license was granted to the hotel last week by the State Board of Equalization after a hearing in Carmel. The granting of the license was opposed by the City Council and a group of property owners in the La Playa neighborhood.

Stanley stated at the hearing that the lounge would be designed primarily for the hotel guests and would not seek transient trade. He said it will have no street entrance.

COUNCIL AGENDA FULL OF ROUTINE MATTERS

Next week's meeting of the City Council promises to be long, but concerned only with routine matters - tree applications and so forth. The "little" things take time to decide, however, and the agenda is full of them.

Councilwoman Geraldine Smith, now on vacation, is not expected to be present at the meeting.

PERRY NAMED TO HOSPITAL BOARD

Thomas K. Perry, attorney at law and attorney for the City of Carmel, was named last week to the Board of Directors of the Peninsula Community Hospital, it was announced by Miss Katherine Smits, director of the hospital.

FAIRGROUNDS KITCHEN CONTRACT AWARDED

The new kitchen for the exposition building at the Fairgrounds is due to be completed by October 1 in time for the big Elks convention. Jake D. Huizenga of Monterey was awarded the contract for the low bid of $31,599.45.

It was expected that the kitchen would cost about $38,000. About $15,000 was raised locally, and the rest was put up by the state. The kitchen makes the big building suitable for conventions.

Fair President Corum B. Jackson said that the money

LOCAL ARTISTS' WORK AT STATE FAIR SHOW

Ten Peninsula artists are among those who will be included in the State Fair's Arts and Crafts Show. They will have selections in four different categories, conservative oils, modern oils, water colors and prints.

The show, from August 28 through September 7, is the largest in the State Fair's history.

In the conservative oils category, seven local artists are represented - Frank H. Myers and Russel Swan, both of Pacific Grove, Arthur Hill Gilbert of Monterey, Leslie Emery, J. N. Swanson and Ruth Tait, all of Carmel and Abel G. Warshawsky, Monterey, who has entered a jury free exhibit.

V. Conroy of Monterey has a modern oil selection as well as a water color. Donald Teague of Carmel also is in the water color exhibit. Ray Ann Hamlin of Pacific Grove has entered a print. Mabel L. Miller, Salinas, the only other county entrant, has a selection in the water color category.

NEW DERBY UNDER WAY

The new Salmon Derby that started here July 3 and closes August 3, had quite an upset among the 'highest so fars' this week.

Leading now is Sidney Saguitan, 1211 David avenue, Pacific Grove, with a 44 pound 13 ounce whopper. Second is J.P. Quinn of Salinas, who won third place in the recent Salmon and Deep Sea Fishing Derby. Quinn's new potential winner weighed in at 44 pounds and 7 ounces. Third is Ivan R. Daffet of Salinas whose salmon weighed 42 pounds, 12 ounces.

First prize in the new derby is $250; second, $50; third, a rod, reel, and landing net; fourth a rod and reel; and the booby prize is a $25 rod and reel.

The Monterey Peninsula Sportsmen's Conservation Club is sponsoring the Salmon Derby and they urge all sports anglers to make their sports reservations early.

FISHERMEN'S QUEEN CONTEST CONTINUES

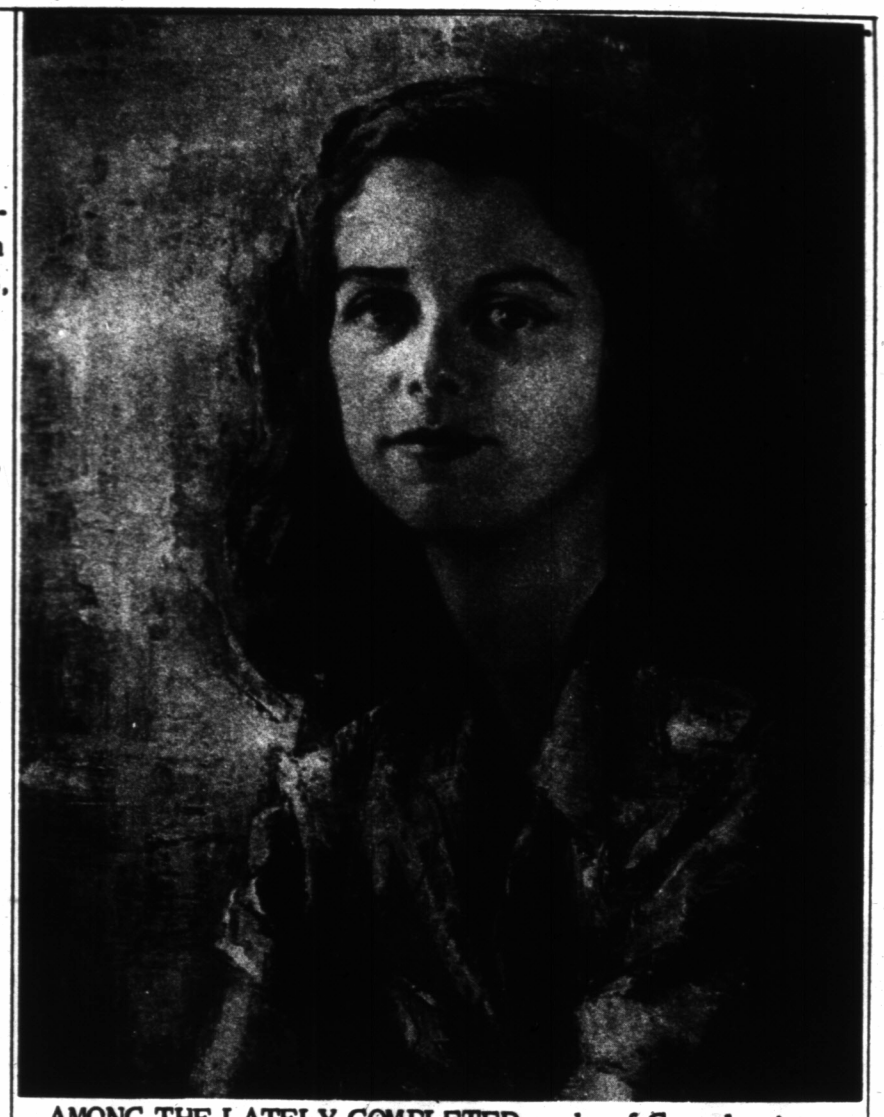
The queen contest of the Fishermen's Festival and the Italian Catholic Federation's 22nd Annual Convention, September 6-9 at Monterey, now has seven contestants. The seventh and latest contender for the coveted title of queen is Eleaine Balesteri, age 16, of 18 Loma Vista Place, Monterey.

Leading in selling queen candidate tickets is Stella Crivello, 326 Pacific street, and second place so far is held by Sarah Lillian Constanza, 296 Van Buren. Other contestants are Anna Carania, 580 Scott, Marie Pettas, 563 Larkin, Elizabeth Constanza, 147 Van Buren and Frances Furino, 51 Via Chular.

Mrs. Serafina Rappa, chairman of the queen contest, announced today that it is not too late for any girl to enter. For further information, phone Mrs. Rappa at 5-6628.

COUNTY FAIR JUDGES PICKED BY CONTESTANTS

Standard procedure for queen contests will be swicthed this year in selecting Miss Monterey County Fair. Judges, who will be Mayors or City Managers from nearby California cities, will be chosen from twelve candidates and the five selected will then choose a queen. The judges will be picked for general attractiveness, a properly roving eye, and a competent wolf whistle. The queen will be chosen for beauty, poise, personality and talent. Queen contestants will wear evening gowns and bathing suits are taboo. Any young lady between 16 and 25 years of age is eligible and entry blanks may be secured from the Monterey County Fair, Box 1151, Monterey.



AMONG THE LATELY COMPLETED works of Carmel painter Linford Donovan is this portrait of Miss Nancy Johnson of Sacramento, step-grand-daughter of Carmel's Helen Lightner Dean. Mrs. Donovan, whose one-man show opens this afternoon in the Carmel Art Association galleries, specializes in portraits and character studies. Her work has attracted wide attention and critical acclaim during the two years she has been exhibiting in the Association galleries on Dolores street. The show will last through August 15. --Steve Crouch photo.

BENNET, BEECHER CRAFTS TO BE IN STATE FAIR SHOW

Helen Bennet of Carmel Valley and Helen Beecher of Carmel have had entries in weaving selected to be shown in the State Fair Crafts exhibit. The Fair will take place August 28th through September 7th. Of 791 entries submitted to the judges from California, only 290 selections were made. Miss Bennet will have one selection, while Miss Beecher will have two in the show.

The only other crafts selection from Monterey County was that of 3 ceramics by Duane Matterson of Monterey.

FOREIGN CAR OWNERS TO ORGANIZE CLUB

Foreign car owners on the Peninsula are invited to attend a meeting next week to organize a local club. The meeting, being organized by Bill Rapier, will be held at the Casa Blanca Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

All owners of foreign cars are invited to the meeting. It is expected that the group will pick a club name and consider affiliation with a national group.

ALL INVITED TO FAIR KICKOFF BREAKFAST

A genuine Western breakfast ...just like those served to cowhands during a cattle round-up...will be served from a chuck wagon at the Monterey County Fairgrounds on Thursday morning, August 14th.

The breakfast will be the kick-off event for the opening of the annual Monterey County Fair and will follow a flag raising ceremony at 8 a.m. The fair this year is from August 14 to 17.

Civic leaders throughout the district will be on hand for the event, featuring such tempting food as bacon and eggs, hash-brown potatoes, biscuits, sorgum, fruit and coffee. There also will be western entertainers and other special events.

Many civic organizations are planning to make the event one of their regular weekly meeting occassions. Veterans groups will be asked to volunteer their services in helping stage the opening flag raising ceremony.

Tinsley C. Fry, President of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the kick-off breakfast, assures everyone they'll enjoy the food as well as the entertainment.

Reservations may be made either at the Monterey or Pacific Grove Chamber offices, or at the Fairgrounds Administration Building. Cost per plate is $1.25.

DR. MC LEAN TO LECTURE

Dr. W. Henry McLean, D.D., L.L.D., will spend the month of August on the Peninsula to give a series of lectures on General Psychology and Comparative Metaphysics at the Women's Civic Club, Pacific Grove.

The two hour lectures will be given on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from August 3 through September 4 at 8 p.m.

Dr. McLean is acknowledged by educators, industrialists and professional colleagues to be one of the outstanding psychologists of our time. Dr. Mc Lean's lectures are sage and witty, presenting practical application of psychology to principals of every day living and are of special interest to parents, teachers and those seeking understanding stability and peace of mind.

NEW SCHOOL FOR BOYS TO OPEN IN PEBBLE BEACH

"It is the purpose of the Del Monte School for Boys to provide a superior educational environment for youngsters of good ability," declared Robert U. Ricklefs, director of the new school located at Pebble Beach, as he announced the opening of the school in September.

Ricklefs is being assisted in the administration of the new school by highly qualified and experienced personnel. Dr. Louis Gay Balsam, who will serve as Dean of Students, has held many varied educational posts including a professorship in sociology at Clark University; S. Fletcher Dutton, who will be the Business Manager, is a former resident of Carmel Highlands and has been active in Boy Scout work while serving as an executive of the Spreckels Sugar Company for the past twenty years; Dr. John Louis Horn, formerly Head of the Departments of Education at Mills and Dominican Colleges, will be the educational consultant.

Ricklefs stated that the school, which will enroll pupils in grades four through twelve, will utilize to the greatest possible extent the vast cultural resources of the Carmel community.

Like so many Localights, "Jimmy" Griffin is living in Carmel for one reason only - he and his family like it. And he has a job that involves him deeply in city affairs. Last week he was named full-time assistant and understudy for City Clerk Peter Mawdsley.

Music, once his vocation, has now become Jimmy's chief avocation. He just finished a singing role in "Mr. Bunt" at the Forest Theater and is presently occupied as musical director for "That's The Ticket" to be presented this summer.

The latter is a musical revue, a sequel to "This Is It", last year's local hit. Mike Monohan, Ric Masten and Don Adams authored the new show. Jimmy has a role as well as doing the choral arranging and handling the music direction.

Thomas L. Griffin was born in Roanoke, Va., and doesn't have even a hint of why he was called "Jimmy" by his parents. While attending Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N.J., Jimmy met Marie (pronounced Mary) and they were married in 1939. Two years later he was graduated and went to Spartansburg, N.C., where he was music director at the First Baptist Church. James C. Byrnes attended the church when he wasn't in Washington as FDR's right hand man.

Inducted into the Army in 1942, Jimmy was commissioned a second lieutenant six months later. After attending Signal Corps schools, he was assigned to the Philadelphia Signal Depot as assistant executive officer. Here he learned administrative procedures and at times acted as excutive officer for the depot, the biggest in the country at that time.

He went overseas in 1945 and was discharged in 1946 as a captain. While he was serving in the Pacific, his wife came to Carmel to live with her sister whose husband was also in the service. Jimmy met her here and decided this was the place to settle down with their two children.

The Griffins have been here since with the exception of two years spent as director of music at the First Presbyterian church at Santa Ana. While there, they longed for the cool of Carmel, so back they came.

In December 1950, the council decided that the city needed an understudy for the city clerk. Peter Mawdsley had just had an accident and was out of his office for several weeks. Through his wife he was able to do the necessary work from his home, but the council felt it was necessary to have someone available who knew the job.

The Griffin's two boys, Billy, six, and Tommy, nine, both attend Sunset School. Both were born while Jimmy was in service and he was not with Marie either time. "I was spared the ordeal of pacing hospital corridors, handing out cigars, ...and doing the usual celebrating," he says.

STAMP CLUB MEETING

It will be auction time next Monday night at the meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club at 8 o'clock in the lounge of the Carmel High School, according to president Col. John R. Wright.

With E. R. Blankenship as auctioneer, there will be spirited bidding and bargains in stamps will be knocked down to the highest bidder. The stamp collectors of the Peninsula are cordially invited to bring their friends, their duplicate stamps, blocks, sheets and covers or albums and stock books and turn them into cash on the auctioneer's block. Collectors also bring their check books and small change and pick up rarities for their own collections.

Mrs. George Mooney, secretary, will serve coffee and cakes. Philatelists and friends are cordially invited to come out August 4 at 8.

COMMUNITY CHEST PLANS PRE-DRIVE ACTIVITIES

Three projects are being planned to alert Peninsula residents to the coming Community Chest fund campaign.

The first of the ssignments is the slogan vote to be conducted at the Chest's booth at the Monterey Peninsula County Fair, August 14 to 17, and was made to Daniel John Monterey merchant.

The Chest's Fair booth will be manned by representatives of the Visiting Nurse Association and selected tropps of Boy Scouts. Decorations will be planned and executed by Mrs. A. D. Studybaker of Carmel, well known for her Garden Tours and other posters and decorations. Its main features will be a huge ballot box, and displayed with it, the slogan suggestions that win the three prizes offered in the Community Chest contest now being conducted.

With the booth as headquarters, boy scouts will circulate among Fair visitors, ballots and pencils in hand, to obtain votes on the three slogans. At the Fair's close the slogan that has received the most votes will be officially adopted for the Community Chest's fund campaign and its creator will be awarded a specially designed plaque.

THE CARMEL ASSOCIATED SPORTSMEN, Inc., have expanded the above little clearing in the wilderness into a rifle range and club-house site with the aid of a bull dozer and the brawn of 30 club members. A 200 yard range, complete with 4 targets and a wide deep pit, have been established and tested, a 100 yard range is under construction, one bench rest has been approved by actual use, and 3 more ordered, while the club-house site and picnic grounds are being cleared. The long sought club grounds have been leased from Howard Hatton in Carmel Valley. The Sportsmen's Club will hold their first meeting on their new grounds on Tuesday, August 5, at 7 p.m. Illumination will be by campfire.

campaigns - is the poster contest to be conducted in grade and high schools and Monterey Peninsula College, and was made to Bert Berg, Seaside. These posters and a selection of the others prepared, then will be displayed in stores of the communities.

The third assignment was to Robert Ross, Chest Publicity Chairman, and is a hole-in-one golf tournament to be conducted at all Peninsula courses during the Chest's fund drive. For this event three shots will be sold for a dollar. For every hole-in-one a souvenir plaque will be awarded.

SPECIAL EVENTS FUNDS

An emergency meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Hotel Association was held Monday, July 28th at the Highlands Inn. A resolution was passed, pledging $2,000 to the Special Events Committee's continued program of promoting the Tourist Industry on the Monterey Peninsula. The $2,000 will be raised in the following manner: $2.00 per room from hotels having bar service and restaurant service; $1.50 per room from hotels having restaurant service; and $1.00 per room from hotels operating on a seasonal basis only.

The resolution will be submitted to the next regular meeting of the Hotel Association for adoption. In the meantime, pledges are being signed by the hotels to start the program.

The Special Events committee is under the direction of Jehanne Monteagle and has been operating about a year.

PENINSULA GARDENS

Nowhere in America do flowers grow more luxuriantly or bloom more brilliantly than on the Monterey Peninsula. The gold of the Marigold is the gold of the setting sun, the blue of the Larkspur is the blue of a tropic sky. The beneficent combination of salty sea air, rich earth, fine climate, and good water makes Peninsula gardens what they are.

Anyone can make a garden here. But if you are not skilled in the art, consult your nurseryman who will tell you all about seed and soil and sun and shade, who will advise you in the matter of soil feeding and will tell you how to water for the best results.

Just as your garden soil needs food for the proper development of shrubs and flowers, your water company requires nourishment to keep it growing to meet the increasing demand for service . . . a brand of food called "Net Income," very necessary to attract the new capital needed for improvement and expansion.

Permission to establish law offices in the Marcucci Dental Building, zoned for medical offices, in the Valley Village, has been granted by the county planning commission, which passed an amendment to the county zoning ordinance allowing attorneys, architects, public accountants, and engineers to offices under the zoning restrictions...A request by Wendell Redding to rezone two lots in the Airway Tract for rental duplexes will be given two hearings, August 25 and September 29.

The Carmel Valley delegation made personal call upon the county planning commission this week reminding the commissioners of their promise to deliver survey maps of the proposed valley road realignment in the valley and a second map showing an alternative routing following more closely the present road. Promised several weeks ago, the maps have not been delivered. County engineer H. F. Cozzens told the group, comprising property owners favoring the alternative route, that the department had been very busy and hadn't time to prepare the maps. He promised them within two or three weeks.' The valley group requested that the first of the public hearings on the matter be set for some date in August pointing out that with the proposed realignment cutting through much private property, it is not possible to develop or sell the property until final set plans have been approved. The commissioners agreed to have maps definitely finished in August for study be local individuals and groups. Two public hearings will likely be held in Sept. and Oct.

Those present included Mrs. Mary Louise Miller, spokesman, Mrs. R. B. Stoney, Mrs. H.W. Ayers, Miss Ruth Blanchard, Mrs. V. A. Ashton and Mrs. and Mr. Fred Whelan.

If you're seeing spots before your eyes these days .. maybe they aren't sunspots .. maybe you don't need glasses.. maybe they're only flying saucers....Lou Allaire, latest of Valleyites who thinks he may have seen the weird phenomena which is titillating the nation's curiosity and stimulating its sweat glands..Coming in from the Valley one nite last week, Lou spotted several strange

They receded from sight after a while, but Lou picked them up again in a different part of the sky while driving by the Carmel High School a few minutes later...Probably nothing but a flight of Marfians looking for a nice place to settle on Earth..we suggest Carmel Valley.

The Amateur Gardener

GARDENING FOR HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

By CHARLES W. DELANEY

Our discussion of Soil, Sun and Showers brings us to think of life as a whole. The thing we call life makes us realize that we are only a small part of a whole in which a great Force or Power guides all things to an ultimate end. In this materialistic form of living we develop a philosophy which we interpret according to our mental development and life's experiences. There is a great Spiritual influence which surrounds us with the need for friends, the desire to be wanfed or needed by someone and, in addition to these, there are so many things about us that are wonderful and free.

The necessities of life, food, clothing, shelter, light, air and water - on these we can exist; but for the soul we need something to love, something to hope for. Now let us think of the extras. We need sunlight, but when it shimmers down through the trees, making indescribable designs and patterns on the grass...this is extra. A Sunset is a great masterpiece of Art, as we gaze into the heart of flames fading over the ocean, which man has failed to reproduce.

So it is with moonlight and stars which fill us with mysticism and wonder. The wind is necessary, but not the song it sings through the leaves in the trees; these are extra.

There is really too much beauty in life for this materialistic world to adequately appreciate. Do we really appreciate the fragrance of flowers with their beauty of form and color? The slight effort to grow them far outweighs any other regard. They compensate us beyond any reward of utility.

Our vanity accepts these extras as a matter of course, just as if they were our birthright. The spiritually strong person is filled with a joy and amazement at the wonder of it all.

How grateful we should be for such spiritual luxury. So many things tell us that behind the veil of Life hides a God of of beauty, gracious and full of mercy for all things, both great and small.

We can make a garden a shrine, where we can see and realize that here is much more in life if we live nearer His presence. It is not creed we need so much, but rather to know and realize that all we have and hope for comes from one Source. Nature and all its wonders is our sure path to finding the power which guides all life.

We are living in the most exciting, interesting and troublous times in the world's existence and there has seldom been a greater need for Spiritual and Divine guidance. We do not feel the need for the Spiritual side of life until we have had a great tragedy, personal sufferingand uncertainty. Then we find the need to have something to lean upon for help in our troubled souls.

Getting close to nature is the revealing for us of an omnipotent Force with which we must co-operate. Electricity was always present...but man had to discover it and learn its appliaction to his needs. Waterpower has always been here, but man had to harness it for his use. The plants grew wild, but man had to hybridize them for beauty, color and fragrance. The vegetables were were originally wild and man developed them for food and sustenance. All of these are being further perfected for greater use and more abundance.

God has supplied the source and man must not be idle and must and will continue to work for and with Him. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Not in a personal way, but through the extras he has given us.

VETS URGED TO START FALL SCHOOL PLANNING

Now is the time to start the paper work rolling if you're a World War II veteran and plan to attend school in the Fall semester with help from 'Cal. Vet' educational benefits, Claude S. Estill, Veterans' Service Officer pointed out recently.

Many of the preliminaries—such as inquiring about approved courses of training, applying for certificate of eligibility, and even making sure that discharge and separation documents are in order - can be handled without undue haste now, the service officer noted.

But putting off action until school registration rushes start in the Fall can mean serious delay in securing the required authorization for state educational assistance. In some cases, veterans may find they are too late to enroll in certain sought-after courses, Mr. Estill added.
